OFFER PRIZES—Valuable prizes will be given away this weekend when the Friendly Furniture Company opens its store at 2067 Torrance Blvd., the fourth in the rapidly expanding chain.

Friendly Furniture Company Opens Torrance Store, Prizes Given Away

Valuable prizes of home furnishings will be one of the major features of the Grand Opening celebration of the new Friendly Furniture Co. store beginning today at 2067 Torrance Blvd. in Torrance.

Three big prizes will be given away daily with the first prize built 36" Griddle Range and two step tables and one coffee table tomorrow at 5 p.m. Nick Drale, Torrance councilman will choose the lucky winners from the cards of those who have registered at the store.

This new Torrance store is the fourth of a chain of Friendly stores in the Los Angeles area, and is managed by Cecil Finkler, a longtime official of the firm.

The grand opening is being participated in by a long list of furniture and appliance manufacturers and representatives of many of these firms will be on hand during the celebration to answer questions about the newest in modern home furnishings.

The opening celebration will continue through next week with the exception on Wednesday,

Yom Kippur, when the store will be closed in observance of the high holiday.

Freeway Link Opening Plans Set by Officials

With last minute construction of the Harbor freeway between Century boulevard and 124th street being rushed to completion for next Wednesday's ribbon-cutting, Robert Blocker, resident engineer on the project for the State Highway Department, this week conducted Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, Carl Hoffman, ribbon-cutting ceremony chairman, and Ellery G. McClung, co-chairman, on a preview inspection of the new link. Ceremony will be held near the Imperial highway underpass at 9:30 a.m.

The new link will be open to through traffic about noon, following the ceremony, Blocker said.

Robert McClure, State Highway Commissioner for the Los Angeles area, will cut the ribbon to open officially the new freeway section. A tape-recorded message to participants, made by Governor Goodwin J. Knight, who is unable to be present, will be played.

Supervisor Hahn pointed out that with its traffic count of 190,000 vehicles a day, the Harbor freeway is the second most important freeway in California.
